OUR PURPOSE

All proceeds benefit the Employee Wellbeing Fund at Franciscan Health Foundation. During the Covid-19 pandemic, thousands of health workers put their own health and safety at risk so they could heal and comfort others. Most health care workers, at some point during their career, report feeling overwhelmed, depressed, anxious, along with feeling physically and mentally exhausted. Our Employee Wellbeing Fund will provide education and resources for improving mental health and avoiding burnout.

Featured performers include:

Franciscan Family Night features country music artists from Nashville, Tennessee – country music capital of the world.

All three artists are regular performers at Nashville's most legendary venues including The Bluebird Café and Ryman Auditorium.

Tommy Karlas wrote "Roll with Me" performed by Montgomery-Gentry which reached number one on the Country Music charts and was the duet's most downloaded song during their famed career. Tommy has also written for Warren Zeiders, Blake Shelton, Randy Travis, and Trish Yearwood.

Ryan Larkins has been writing songs since he was 12. Ryan captured the attention of country music fans by earning third place on CMT's singing competition Can You Duet. His most recent project includes co-writing "Someday It'll All Make Sense" a duet performed by country music icons Dolly Parton and Bill Anderson.

Will Jones began performing at the age of six with his family's traveling bluegrass band, The Cana Ramblers. Will launched his solo career as a singer-songwriter at the age of 17. He has written, toured, and performed alongside a wide range of musical talent including Tracy Lawrence, Sierra Hull, Ben Haggard, and the legend, Johnny Cash.
